Dear Jimmy. We arrived in London on schedule and the flight over was just about perfect. We had a short nap when we got to our hotel room and then went for a walk but we are kind of tired after missing a nights sleep. Bob and Delores haven't arrived yet but we hope to see them tonight. Tomorrow (Sat.) we are going on a tour of the city and I hope to go on the night club to us Saturday Night.

This is a very quaint city. Narrow streets and all the cars are little and they dart in and out so fast that it is scary to cross the streets. It has been raining hard.

Bob just called from the airport. They were put on a plane in New York that took them to Zurich, Germany so they arrived here in London later than they had planned. We will take a cab to
